PENINSULA, Ohio – Oct. 22, 2021–

WHAT: A photo safari that includes an outdoor reception, attendees will have the opportunity to have a meet and greet with photographers featured in the Conservancy Cuyahoga Valley National Park 2022 Calendar and hike to a prime photo location in the park and capture a scenic photograph with the photographer.

WHY: The calendars help to promote awareness of the Cuyahoga Valley National Park and Photographic Society, with all proceeds from the calendar sales going towards preserving the park. The event provides an opportunity for calendar photographers and attendees to gather and celebrate the most picturesque places in the national park.

WHO: The Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park members, Cuyahoga Valley Photographic Society members, and nature lovers from around the community.

WHERE: The photo safari event will start at Boston Mills Visitor Center 6947 Riverview Rd, Peninsula, OH 44720. The parking lot entrance is right off Riverview Road. After the reception there is the option to hike to another location in the park where guests can capture their own photos.

WHEN: The event will take place on Saturday, Oct. 23, from 3 to 4 p.m.

MEDIA INFORMATION: To get a media pass for this event you can contact Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park's Marketing Director Alexis Korczynski by phone 330-805-1694 or by E-mail akorczynski@forcvnp.org.

VISUALS: At the photo safari event you can expect to see Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park members, nature lovers, and Cuyahoga Valley Photographic Society members interacting with each other over their shared interests of the park and photography.
