PENINSULA, Ohio – Oct. 1, 2021 – Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park is launching the new 2022 Cuyahoga Valley National Park calendar containing photos of the park throughout the seasons taken by members of the Cuyahoga Valley Photographic Society. Proceeds from the calendar sales will allow for Conservancy to continue to carry out the mission of enriching people's lives and enhancing the region by inspiring use, preservation and support of Cuyahoga Valley National Park.

"The submissions for this year's calendar were incredible; we had a hard time choosing," Deb Yandala, Chief Executive Officer, said. "We are so pleased these talented photographers will be joining us for the Photo Safari and showing off their favorite photo locations."

The Photo Safari Event will take place on Saturday, Oct. 23 from 3-4 p.m. at Boston Mills Visitor Center 6947 Riverview Rd, Peninsula, OH 44264. Spaces are limited. To be ensured a spot at this event, call 330-657-2909 for a reservation. The event is free for Cuyahoga Valley National Park members and $25 for non-members.

Attendees will be given the opportunity to purchase the new calendar and participate in related activities. Guests at the event will have a meet and greet opportunity with the calendar photographers during an outdoor reception, and then participants will venture out to a prime photo location on a hike guided by one of the calendar photographers.

Amateur and professional photographers interested in contributing to future calendar can join the Cuyahoga Valley Photographic Society and enter photos into future park calendar contests for a chance to get their work featured.

"I am so proud that this year my work was able to be featured in the 2022 calendar and I can't wait to buy a calendar for each of my family members as a holiday gift," Steve Ash, 2022 calendar photo contest winner said.

The Cuyahoga Valley National Park 2022 calendar is available just in time for holiday gift-giving and can be purchased now in the online store and physical store locations. The calendars are regularly priced at $15.95 but are 15% off for conservancy members.
